

Music@Menlo goes to London and Paris!

September 16–25, 2018*

St. Paul's and the Millenium Bridge

Musée du Louvre

This fall join David Finckel and Wu Han on a deluxe visit to two of the great cities of the world—and brilliant music capitals—London and Paris.

David, Wu Han and other Music@Menlo musicians will perform privately at four remarkable venues, including the spectacular Hotel de Talleyrand, the late 18th century home of the great French statesman and later headquarters of the Marshall Plan; the splendid home and studio of the British Victorian painter Frederick Lord Leighton; the lavish salon of an exclusive private club in Paris; and the Music Room of composer George Frederic Handel's longtime London home.

You will visit superb art collections in small private museums, enjoy private viewings of important music manuscripts at the British Library and Bibliotheque Nationale, hear exclusive talks on the historic musical life in both cities; a private wine tasting in Paris with a top sommelier; and many other surprises in store. All this while staying in pampered luxury at 5-star hotels in both cities—the Ritz London and Hotel Le Meurice in Paris—and sampling fine dining at top restaurants throughout the trip. Tour participation is strictly limited.

TOUR COST: $12,850 pp, double occupancy;
$14,985 pp, single occupancy; ground only.

*Tour begins September 17 in London.
